The poem appeared in the first edition of Coleridge and William Wordsworth's Lyrical Ballads in 1798. The poem is thought by some to have been partly inspired by the much lauded explorations of Captain James Cook (discoverer of the Virgin Islands, among other things), which were very much the talk of Coleridge's time. This annotated version by Martin Gardner will help to renew the appreciation and deepen the understanding of Coleridge's unjustly neglected masterpiece. Preceding the poem is a biographical sketch of the great poet, which emphasizes those aspects of his many-sided life and personality that have the strongest bearing on the poem, especially on circumstances surrounding its composition. The Annotated Ancient Mariner has 44,565 ratings and 842 reviews. Bookdragon Sean said: So why did the Ancient Mariner shoot the Albatross? To me the a...
