

Download Letting Go The Wilson Family Book 2

This was my first book by this author and I will continue to read her books. This book was about family and how important they are even if it means that sometimes you must go against them. I loved Patrick he was kind, funny and caring from the beginning. Caitlyn was the most precious little girl and Selene was great. There were times that I did not like Brenda...when Patrick was trying to tell her about his family she judged him without even allowing him to tell her the whole story. Letting Go book.
